

Family/Couples Constellation Workshop

“Despite our greatest efforts some of us find ourselves struggling to live our love fully or relate well within their families.”

They can experience powerful forces that thwart them in their lives and feel entangled within the dynamics of their family.

Entanglements in family dynamics can result in relationship difficulties between:

- partners
- parents and children
- siblings

They can also contribute to:

- addictions
- illnesses
- negative repetitive patterns in our lives

Constellation work is a process by which family dynamics are made visible.
